

▶ We currently have

173

Research & Development Team Members who work at the Tyson Discovery Center.

50

Team Members are degreed professionals with a master's or PhD.

46

Team Members achieved a CCS Culinologist certification from the Research Chefs Association.

Tyson Discovery Center is where new products are brought to life. All of these resources make up the building blocks of the process needed to take a product from a great idea to the dinner table.

100,000

Square Foot Facility

39,000

Square Foot Pilot Plant

20,000

Square Feet of Kitchen Space

40,000

Square Feet of Office Space

19 Kitchens

16 research, 2 presentation and 1 USDA kitchen complete with all the tools for culinary innovation.

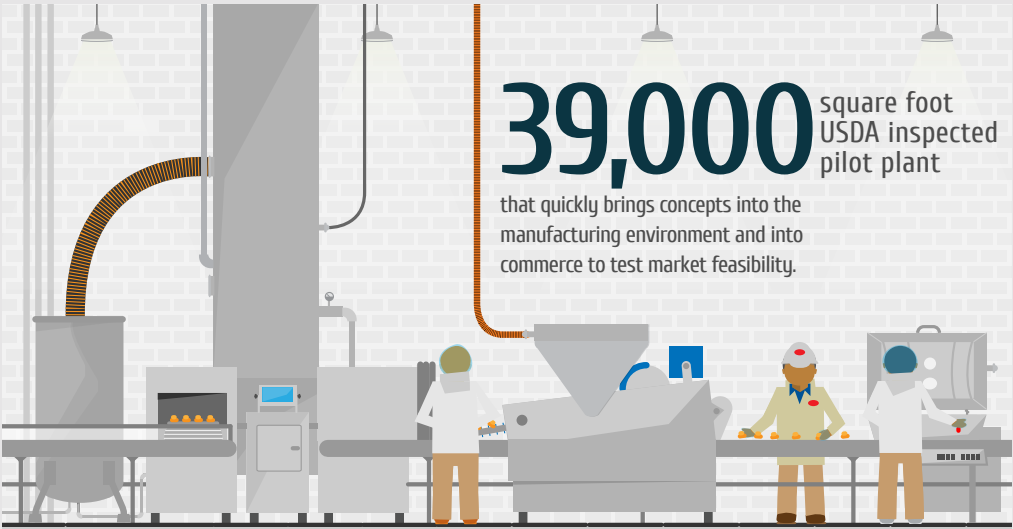

Continued on next page.

More Information?

This PDF is provided as a copy of the info graphic that appears on our website.

For more information on this topic, click here.

39,000 square foot
USDA inspected pilot plant

that quickly brings concepts into the manufacturing environment and into commerce to test market feasibility.

SENSORY LAB AND FOCUS GROUP AREA

for basic sensory test and consumer product analysis.

PACKAGING INNOVATION LAB

with a focus on fulfilling emerging consumer needs and planning the future of packaging for protein as they are developed.

